HM Revenue & Customs, regulators and other authorities based in the UK and other relevant jurisdictions who require reporting of processing activities in certain circumstances.

Fraud prevention agencies.

We require all third parties to whom we transfer your data to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We only allow such third parties to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

4. INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

Countries outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) do not always offer the same levels of protection to your personal data, so European law has prohibited transfers of personal data outside of the EEA unless the transfer meets certain criteria.

If we do ever have the situation whereby we transfer your personal data outside of the EEA we will do our best to ensure a similar degree of security of the data by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European commission: or

Where we use certain service providers, we may use specific contracts or codes of conduct or certification mechanisms approved by the European commission which give personal data the same protection as it has in Europe: or

Where we use providers based in the United States, we may transfer data to them if they are part of the EU-US Privacy shield which requires them to provide similar protection to personal data shared between the Europe and the US

If none of the above safeguards are available, we may request your explicit consent to the specific transfer. You will have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.

5. DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know such data. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach which we are legally required to do so.

6. DATA RETENTION

We will only retain personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, reporting or insurance requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period of personal data, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and applicable legal requirements.

By law we have to keep basic information about our customers (including contracts, Identity, financial and transactional data) for six years even if they have ceased being a client for both Tax and insurance purposes.

We may however keep your personal information for longer than 7 years if we cannot delete it for regulatory, legal accounting or technical reasons. In such situations we will ensure that your privacy is protected and only use it for the purpose required

In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see below for further information

7.YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

Under certain circumstances, you have the rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data.

These include the right to:

Request access to your personal data

Request correction of your personal data

Request erasure of your personal data

Object to processing of your personal data

Request restriction of processing your personal data

Request transfer of your personal data

Right to withdraw consent

You can see more about these rights at:

<https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/individual-rights/>

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please email us at info@havardassoc.co.uk

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

We may need to request specific information from you to help confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that
